MEDIA INFORMATION: DECEMBER 27 - 29

NATIONAL FIELD FEATURED AT SLAM DUNK TO THE BEACH: A national slate of high school teams will participate in the return of the renowned Slam Dunk to the Beach basketball tournament. Sixteen teams—representing seven states and the District of Columbia—will be competing in this year's event. The tournament, long a staple of the national high school basketball calendar, is returning for the first time since 2003. It will feature 18 games, with two sessions of three games each, over the course of three days.

RANKINGS REPRESENTED IN FIRST STATE: The field which makes its way to Cape Henlopen High School this week is headlined by three schools who currently occupy spots in the USA Today's weekly national rankings. #5 Roselle Catholic High School (Roselle, NJ), #17 Our Savior New American School (Centereach, NY) and #23 Christ the King High School (Middle Village, NY) are all spending their winter break in the First State. Gonzaga College High School (Washington, D.C.) has also spent time in USA Today's national rankings this season.

HERALDED RECRUITS TAKE CENTER STAGE: Several of the best high school prospects in the country will be in Delaware to compete. Six of ESPN's top 100 players in the class of 2015 and three more of the Worldwide Leader in Sports' top 60 players in the class of 2016 are coming to Slam Dunk to the Beach. The most highly regarded player in the field is Our Savior New American School's Cheick Diallo. The Centereach, NY native is the No. 7 senior in the country, according to ESPN. Gill St. Bernard's School's Tyus Battle headlines the class of 2016, as the No. 14 junior in the country and the top-ranked point guard according to ESPN.

GAMES CAN BE SEEN ANYWHERE: The Delaware Sports Commission has kindly secured basketball fans an opportunity to watch every game of Slam Dunk to the Beach even if they cannot make it to Cape Henlopen High School. ESPN3 will deliver live the December 29 game between Roselle Catholic High School (NJ) and Gonzaga College High School (DC) at 6 p.m. My Cozi TV Delmarva will broadcast every other tournament contest over the air. Broadcasts of those games will also be streamed live online at NFHSNetwork.com. "This multipronged media deal is a huge coup for Slam Dunk to the Beach," said Delaware Sports Commission Chairman, Dr. Matthew Robinson. "To be able to work with the Worldwide Leader in Sports, as well as a pair of strong local entities, provides us with a comprehensive level of coverage most tournaments simply cannot offer. We will have 17 of our 18 games on television plus ESPN3, which will provide the perfect opportunity to showcase both the state of Delaware as well as these incredibly talented student-athletes." ESPN3 coverage will be available online at WatchESPN.com, on smartphones and tablets via the WatchESPN app and streamed on televisions through Amazon Fire TV, Apple TV, Chromecast, Roku, Xbox 360 and Xbox One. All other telecasts will be produced by the NFHS Network, which is the nation's leading destination for live coverage of high school sports and events. My COZiTV is available on Comcast Cable on Channel 204, and on Mediacom Cable Channel 99.

SLAM DUNK TO THE BEACH HISTORY: Slam Dunk to the Beach is back. To properly put into perspective just how prominent a place the Lewes, DE event carved out in the basketball hierarchy, some stats are required. The tournament, which hosted some of the nation's premier players, including LeBron James ('01), Dwight Howard ('03), Kevin Durant ('03), Carmelo Anthony ('00) and J.J. Redick ('01), was like a highway to the NBA.

Slam Dunk to the Beach featured 48 players who were drafted by NBA teams during a 10-year stretch from 1998-2007. During that time, 33 guys were taken in the opening round. If you narrow it down to a six-year stretch of drafts from 2001-2006, a remarkable 13 alums from Slam Dunk to the Beach were chosen among the top-10 picks.

That means 22 percent of all top-10 selections during that timeframe made their way through the First State, including the second overall picks of the 2001, 2002 and 2007 drafts (Tyson Chandler, Jay Williams and Durant) and the top overall choices of the 2003 and 2004 drafts (James and Howard).

SLAM DUNK TO THE BEACH MEDIA INFORMATION

PERTINENT MEDIA INFORMATION & POLICIES:

Credentials:

Media credentials will be distributed starting on December 27th at Cape Henlopen High School. The media check-in table will be setup in the main lobby and will open each day at 11:00 AM. Be advised that this pass is required throughout the event and must be displayed at all times. The main entrance to Cape Henlopen High School is located off of Kings Highway and parking is free in the school parking lot. A business card or news ID may be requested at media check-in. The Slam Dunk to the Beach reserves the right to revoke any credentials due to noncompliance of our media policies.

Hotels:

Media members are encouraged to book rooms at the Atlantic Sands Hotel (1 Baltimore Avenue at the Boardwalk, Rehoboth Beach, DE 19971). Slam Dunk to the Beach is providing a special room rate of $115 per night by typing "SLAM" in the promo code box while reserving a room at AtlanticSandsHotel.com (based upon remaining availability).

Photographs/Videotaping:

Credentialed photographers must sit in designated areas as assigned. Photographers will not be allowed to sit on the sidelines at Cape Henlopen High School, unless there is prior approval from the Slam Dunk to the Beach. Videotaping is only permitted in highlight format of all games. Videotaping complete games is not permitted, unless there is prior approval from the Slam Dunk to the Beach. Web streaming is not permitted unless approved. Media outlets are only allowed to show highlights of the games within 48 hours of the event. Anyone who violates these policies may be asked to relinquish their credential and leave the facility.

Cape Henlopen Workroom:

The Media Workroom will be open one hour prior to the games starting, during halftime of each game and a half hour following the last game of the evening. Press room usage is only available to those with a valid Slam Dunk to the Beach media credential. Box scores, rosters, media kits and program books will be available in the media room.

Interviews:

Student-athletes will be available for media interviews after the conclusion of games at the coaches' discretion. Interviews will be held outside the team hospitality area. Position Sports and Slam Dunk to the Beach staff will be on-hand to facilitate interviews if needed. Interviews with student-athletes are to be conducted ONLY in designated areas. No exceptions. The Slam Dunk to the Beach reserves the right to limit the number of interviews conducted. No autographs are allowed during media access periods.

DELAWARE SPORTS COMMISSION

Slam Dunk to the Beach is owned and operated by the Delaware Sports Commission, which is a not-for-profit organization, was established to attract large and small sporting events to Delaware to benefit the sports industry and community and to positively impact Delaware's economy. THREE to SEE at CHRIST THE KING

SF Rawle Alkins

- Ranked No. 9 small forward in class of 2016 and No. 35 overall prospect in that class by ESPN.com
- New York Daily News reported he made recent visits to Villanova, Indiana and North Carolina State in October
- Also holds offers from Florida, Kansas, and Louisville among others
- Told MSG Varsity on December 6, "I'm a vocal guy in practice. Vocal on the court and in the huddle. I expect a lot out of the guys. We're young, but we're very talented. I tell my coach that all the time, winning is the only thing that's on my mind. I want to create for others. I don't care about scoring, my stats. I just want to be a champion"

F Yashawn Bright

- Has earned scholarship offers from Fairfield and Niagara
- His summer coach Tim Brisco described Bright's strengths to Rivals.com. "He's a slasher who can score inside and out and is a great leaper. He was a sleeper early on, but everybody knows about him now."
- New role this season in the starting lineup after coming off the bench last year

F Tyrone Cohen

- Has scholarship offer from Fairfield University
- Also has received interest from American, Boston U., George Washington, Hofstra, Quinnipiac, and Temple
- Had 22 points in Christ The King's 87-56 rout of traditional Chicago power St. Rita's

THREE to SEE at GILL ST. BERNARD'S

SG Tyus Battle

- Ranked as the No. 4 shooting guard in the class of 2016 and is the 14th-ranked junior overall according to ESPN.com
- Has received offers from Connecticut, Duke, Kentucky, Louisville, Villanova, Syracuse, Michigan, Ohio State, Florida and Virginia
- Helped the US under-17 National Team win a world championship
- Had his middle school number retired by Holy Savior Academy. One of only two players from there to receive that honor (the other is former Duke star Jay Williams who attended the school when it was called Sacred Heart)
- Missed Gill St. Bernard's first two games with a foot injury

G Adam Mitola

- His brother Alex graduated from GSB in 2012 and went on to Dartmouth where he is currently playing basketball and on the Dean's List
- Carried the load versus Teaneck. In second straight game without Battle Mitola scored a career-high 24 points and knocked down six three-pointers
- Told MSG Varsity that his team is growing from playing without its best player early in the season. "We just play as a team, move the ball, hit the open area. Once Tyus comes back we'll be even better if we play like that."

F Julius Stomas

- Had 20 points in GSB's season-opening 73-33 rout of Immaculata to lead all scorers. That game was played without Tyus Battle
- NHoopGroup.com writes that Stomas, "has great athletic ability. He runs the floor well and rebounds on both ends."

THREE to SEE at GONZAGA COLLEGE

G Bryant Crawford

- 16th-ranked point guard in the class of 2015 according to ESPN.com
- Committed to play collegiately at Wake Forest
- Before making his college decision he received offers from Georgetown, Indiana, Marquette, SMU, Memphis, N.C. State and Tennessee
- Broke his leg and missed entire freshman season Then broke bone in hand last December and missed sizeable portion of junior season
- Grew two inches and gained five pounds since finish of last season according to the Washington Post

F Sam Miller

- Committed to play collegiately at Dayton
- Before making his collegiate decision also received offers from Gonzaga, Penn State and Providence
- Told the Washington Post his reasons for selecting Dayton: "They've got all the right things for me and I feel like I can get a lot better and play there early as a freshman. I've also got some family out in Dayton, which is something I didn't have with any of the other schools, so that was a factor, too."
- According to the Post, Dayton loves his ability to score in the paint, knock down the perimeter shot, handle the ball with proficiency and defend multiple positions. So much so that a Flyers coach told Miller when he called to commit to Dayton that the youngster had just provided him with one of the happiest moments of his life

G Chris Lykes

- Has already received offers from Richmond, Hofstra and Old Dominion
- Drawing interest from Syracuse, Villanova, Notre Dame, Maryland and Miami [FL] among others

THREE to SEE at HAVERFORD

SG Shawn Alston

- 25th-ranked shooting guard in the class of 2015 and No. 86 overall player in country
- Committed to play at Temple. Before making his final decision had received offers from 20 programs, but narrowed that list down to VCU, Penn State and Temple at the end
- Dad (Levan Alston, Sr.) also played at Temple from 1995-1997
- According to Philly.com the clinching factor in his decision to go to Temple came when the Owls hired former NBA player Aaron McKie as an assistant coach. McKie had previously worked with the younger Alston, and was a longtime friend of Alston Sr.

SF Lamar Stevens

- 40th-ranked player in the class of 2016 and the No. 10 small forward in the country according to ESPN.com
- Has offers from Villanova, Indiana, Temple, Penn State, St Joseph's and LaSalle
- In his second season at the Haverford School after transferring from Abington Friends
- Alston thinks he and Stevens' chemistry has improved. He told CityOfBasketballLove.com this summer, "Me and Lamar are really close friends, we're together all the time," Alston said. "But last year was tough. I didn't always know where he was on the court, he didn't know where I was at sometimes, but now, playing with each other for a year, playing with each other in the summer in summer tournaments, our chemistry has gotten a lot better."

SG Cameron Reddish

- Made his High School debut last season as an eighth grader and then grew three inches during the offseason
- Already has an offer from Penn State to go along with interest from North Carolina, Villanova, Ohio State, Virginia and others

THREE to SEE at NEUMANN-GORETTI

G LaMarr Kimble

- Ranked as the ninth-best player from the state of Pennsylvania by ESPN.com and the No. 37 point guard in the class of 2015
- Committed to play collegiately at St. Joseph's University
- Prior to committing to the Hawks had offers from Temple, Creighton, Massachusetts and Drexel
- ESPN Insider describes him as a true floor general. "Kimble is a true point guard and proven player at the highest levels of competition. He has an elite handle and understands how to utilize his naturally wider frame so that once he gets to his defender's hip, he's all but in the paint. He can both run a team and be a playmaker and projects as a very dependable and effective point guard in the Atlantic 10."

G Zane Martin

- Played key role off the bench last season as Ss. Neumann Goretti won its four PIAA state championship in the last five years
- ZenithHoops.com described Martin as, "a physical specimen when slashing the basket and finishing through contact."
- Martin's head coach Carl Arrigale told CityOfBasketballLove.com that, "Martin is probably one of the best basketball players in the area that people haven't heard of"

G Quade Green

- CityOfBasketballLove.com describes Green as, "a talented, young, high-major potential guard."
- LaMarr Kimble certainly sees the upside of his young teammate, telling CityOfBasketballLove.com, "He's a real good shooter, a knockdown shooter, so that's kind of his role. And then he's also a nasty defender and presses guys full court so once he just puts it all together he's going to be really good."
- Scored game-high 18 points in first career high school start during Ss. Neumann Goretti's season-opening win over Philadelphia Electric

THREE to SEE at ST. VINCENT-ST. MARY'S

G Josh Williams

- Committed to play collegiately at Akron University
- Ranked as the 11th-best senior in the state of Ohio by ESPN.com and the No. 43 point guard in the class of 2015
- ESPN Insider thinks Williams can be a difference-maker for the Zips. "[Williams] is a great get for Akron and should be an advanced scorer in the MAC. [He] is a dynamic and versatile offensive player. He can score in a variety of ways and at different levels. He is good off the dribble and has the ability to create for himself and others.

F Henry Baddley

- Has received offers from Toledo and Kent State
- Baddley was honest with Cleveland.com about what it was like playing in front of LeBron James during the inaugural LeBron James Classic in early December. "I was nervous. It felt different. It felt like I had to play a littler harder."
- Cleveland.com likes his ability to do a little bit of everything writing, "of all the guards the Irish have, Baddley is the most versatile."

G Jayvon Graves

- Has drawn interest from several schools and took an unofficial visit over the summer to Michigan State according to Cleveland.com
- Also has drawn interest from Dayton, Bowling Green and Miami (OH) according to 247sports.com
- Made varsity as a freshman, but averaged just seven minutes per game last season off the bench
