2018 SLAM DUNK TO THE BEACH

SLAM DUNK TEAMS AMONGST NATION'S BEST: The 2018 Slam Dunk to the Beach field is headlined by several schools that were listed in the MaxPreps Preseason High School Top 100 Boys Basketball Rankings. Paul VI (Fairfax, VA) led the way with a number 11 ranking. Two more Slam Dunk teams joined the top 30, with Roselle Catholic (Roselle, NJ) at number 25 and Gonzaga College (Washington, DC) right behind at number 28. The Patrick School rounds out the list as the 73rd ranked team in the nation.

THE BEST AT THE BEACH: Several of the best high school prospects in the country will be in Delaware to compete. Three of ESPN's top 100 players in the class of 2019 and two more of the ESPN60 list of 2020 graduates are coming to Slam Dunk to the Beach. Several have already made their college choices, including Roselle Catholic's Kahlil Whitney (Kentucky) and Paul VI's Anthony Harris (Virginia Tech).

SCOUTING IT OUT: In only four graduating classes, Slam Dunk to the Beach is already making waves amongst major college programs. The schools that have hit the beach the most have been perennial recruiting power Kentucky with five commitments (Isaiah Briscoe, Quade Green, Immanuel Quickley, Nick Richards and Kahlil Whitney) and Maryland with five commitments, as well (Eric Ayala, Makhi Mitchell, Mahkell Mitchell, Darryl Morsell and Jalen Smith). 2016 & 2018 National Champion Villanova has brought in four from the event (Dhamir Cosby-Roundtree, Donte DiVincenzo, Collin Gillespie and Brandon Slater).

PLAYING PRO: The 2018 NBA Draft featured three Slam Dunk to the Beach alumni selections. Former Westtown HS and University of Texas standout, Mohamed Bamba led the way as the 6th overall pick by the Orlando Magic. After a Final Four Most Outstanding Player performance for Villanova University, Donte DiVincenzo (Salesianum School) was selected 17th overall by the Milwaukee Bucks. Roman Catholic HS graduate and Penn State guard, Tony Carr, was taken 51st by the New Orleans Pelicans.

WHAT HAPPENS (JUST OUTSIDE OF) VEGAS: This season, the team traveling the longest distance to play at Cape Henlopen HS is Liberty High School. Located about 11 miles south of the Las Vegas Strip, the team from Henderson, Nevada will travel over 2,500 miles to compete in this nationally renowned event.

SEEING TRIPLE: In the very first game of the 2017 Slam Dunk to the Beach, local star Caleb Matthews registered the event's first Triple Double since it's return. The Smyrna High School Senior registered 24 points, 10 rebounds and 10 assists to lead the Eagles to an 86-53 win over Howard (DE).

ECONOMIC IMPACT ON DELAWARE BEACHES: Delivering a welcome lift to Sussex County's off-season energy, the Slam Dunk to the Beach high school basketball tournament has contributed more than $4 million to the local economy since it's return in 2014, according to the Delaware Sports Commission. Well over 45,000 visitors have watched the exciting action unfold from at Cape Henlopen High School in Lewes over the last three seasons.

SLAM DUNK TO THE BEACH HISTORY: Slam Dunk to the Beach returned again in 2015. To properly put into perspective just how prominent a place the Lewes, DE event carved out in the basketball hierarchy, some stats are required. The tournament, which hosted some of the nation's premier players, including LeBron James ('01), Dwight Howard ('03), Kevin Durant ('03), and Carmelo Anthony ('00) was like a highway to the NBA.

Slam Dunk to the Beach featured 48 players who were drafted by NBA teams during a 10-year stretch from 1998-2007. During that time, 33 guys were taken in the opening round. If you narrow it down to a six-year stretch of drafts from 2001-2006, a remarkable 13 alums from Slam Dunk to the Beach were chosen among the top-10 picks.

That means 22 percent of all top-10 selections during that timeframe made their way through the First State, including the second overall picks of the 2001, 2002 and 2007 drafts (Tyson Chandler, Jay Williams and Durant) and the top overall choices of the 2003 and 2004 drafts (James and Howard).

The first Slam Dunk alum to be selected in the NBA Draft since its return, Check Diallo, was selected by the New Orleans Pelicans in the 2016 NBA Draft after competing at Slam Dunk to the Beach in 2014 for Our Savior New American. (Photo Credit: Getty Images)
