2017 SLAM DUNK TO THE BEACH

SLAM DUNK TEAMS AMONGST NATION'S BEST: The 2017 Slam Dunk to the Beach field is headlined by several schools listed in the MaxPreps Preseason High School Top 25 Boys Basketball Rankings. Westtown School (West Chester, PA) leads the way with a number 17 ranking. Two more Slam Dunk teams join the top 20, with Archbishop Wood (Warminster, PA) at number 19 and Roselle Catholic (Roselle, NJ) right behind at number 20.

THE BEST AT THE BEACH: Several of the best high school prospects in the country will be in Delaware to compete. Seven of ESPN's top 100 players in the class of 2018 and two more of the Worldwide Leader in Sports' top 60 players in the class of 2019 are coming to Slam Dunk to the Beach. Several have already made their college choices, including Westtown's Cameron Reddish (Duke) and Roselle Catholic's Nazreon Reid (LSU).

SCOUTING IT OUT: In only three graduating classes, Slam Dunk to the Beach is already making waves amongst major college programs. The schools that have hit the beach the most are Maryland with commitments from five Slam Dunk to the Beach alumni (Eric Ayala, Makhi Mitchell, Mahkell Mitchell, Darryl Morsell and Jalen Smith), 2016 National Champion Villanova with four (Dhamir Cosby-Roundtree, Donte DiVincenzo, Collin Gillespie and Brandon Slater) and perennial recruiting power Kentucky with three (Isaiah Briscoe, Quade Green and Nick Richards), plus a soon to be alumni on the way (Immanuel Quickley).

SETTING THE TONE: Although Slam Dunk takes place in December, it has been a good indicator of which team will be cutting down the nets in March. In each season since it's return, the Delaware State Champion has started their year in Lewes, DE. Salesianum won in 2015 after participating in Slam Dunk's return event; Sanford was champion in 2016; and after it's first appearance at Slam Dunk to the Beach, Smyrna went on to win the state title last season.

FROM COAST TO COAST: This season, teams are traveling to Cap Henlopen HS all the way from California and Florida. Harvard-Westlake will make the 5,618 mile round trip journey from Los Angeles for four games of competition over three days, while Dillard will travel over 2,200 miles round trip from Fort Lauderdale to get to Kings Highway in Lewes.

THE FUTURE IS NOW: Slam Dunk to the Beach has a tradition of providing hoops fans with an opportunity to watch the NBA's future stars before they are pros. According to NBADraft.net, this year's crop has several projected NBA Lottery selections. Cameron Reddish (Westtown), Nazreon Reid (Roselle) and Simisola Shittu (Vermont) are listed as the 5th, 6th and 8th selections in the 2019 NBA Draft. Additionally, Mohamed Bamba (Westtown) is predicted as the 4th overall selection in the upcoming 2018 NBA Draft.

ECONOMIC IMPACT ON DELAWARE BEACHES: Delivering a welcome lift to Sussex County's off-season energy, the Slam Dunk to the Beach high school basketball tournament has contributed more than $3 million to the local economy since it's return in 2014, according to the Delaware Sports Commission. Well over 30,000 visitors have watched the exciting action unfold from at Cape Henlopen High School in Lewes over the last three seasons.

SLAM DUNK TO THE BEACH HISTORY: Slam Dunk to the Beach returned again in 2015. To properly put into perspective just how prominent a place the Lewes, DE event carved out in the basketball hierarchy, some stats are required. The tournament, which hosted some of the nation's premier players, including LeBron James ('01), Dwight Howard ('03), Kevin Durant ('03), and Carmelo Anthony ('00) was like a highway to the NBA.

Slam Dunk to the Beach featured 48 players who were drafted by NBA teams during a 10-year stretch from 1998-2007. During that time, 33 guys were taken in the opening round. If you narrow it down to a six-year stretch of drafts from 2001-2006, a remarkable 13 alums from Slam Dunk to the Beach were chosen among the top-10 picks.

That means 22 percent of all top-10 selections during that timeframe made their way through the First State, including the second overall picks of the 2001, 2002 and 2007 drafts (Tyson Chandler, Jay Williams and Durant) and the top overall choices of the 2003 and 2004 drafts (James and Howard).

Most recent Slam Dunk alum to be selected in the NBA Draft, Check Diallo, selected by the New Orleans Pelicans in the 2016 NBA Draft after competing at Slam Dunk to the Beach in 2014 for Our Savior New American. (Photo Credit: Getty Images)
